

Dear Families,

November 27, 2023

- ★ Please LABEL each item of your child’s clothing. Send warm clothing to school. We go outside every day.
- ★ Please keep your child home if they are sick. Call 651-293-8735 to report the absence so it will be excused.

Here’s what’s happening this week:

- MATH: Count, Compare and Contrast within 1,000
- READING: Compare/Contrast
- WRITING: Compare/Contrast
- PHONICS/WORD WORK: Silent, Tricky VCe + exceptions
- SOCIAL/EMOTIONAL STUDIES: Indigenous People
- SPECIALISTS: S, PA, M, PE, S

We have really enjoyed learning about Indigenous peoples across our continent, and those studies will continue this week as we combine reading and writing skills to compare and contrast different topics. This focus is interesting as it applies to the “silent e” rule of phonics. There are many words that follow the CVe rule, but also some exceptions. We’ll learn to analyze the differences! We are starting a new module in math, one also focused around comparison and contrast - but with number value and pattern recognition.

If you have an urgent message, please call the school at 651-293-8735. Otherwise, please email.

All the best, Team One/Two

Jobs of Silent e:
cake	Vowels say their long sound because of e.
love	English words do not end in i, u, v, or j
turtle	Every syllable must have a vowel.
house	Add e to words that end in s so they don't look plural.
owe	Add e to a word to make it look bigger.
orange	The letter c softens to /s/ and g softens to /j/ because of the e.
bath bathe	The letters th say the voiced sound /th/ because of the e.
teas tease	Add an e to clarify meaning.

From Ms. Brandvik:
Hi Friends!

I am looking for donations of adjustable baseball hats that can be used to create masks for the students this year. I need AT LEAST 90 to start out with!

These caps will be altered and not returned - please don't offer any keepsake caps! If the child's name and classroom teacher's name is Sharpied or taped into the inside of the cap, that will be the one they use for their mask!

For many years, SAP has used a collection of children’s books from AMAZE called “Families All Matter” to teach students about empathy, respecting others who are different, recognizing prejudice and stereotypes, and standing up for themselves and others. Each picture book explores different cultures and life experiences of children and their families. By talking about these differences, we help prevent teasing and bullying and build a safer school environment for all students. Students are more successful when they feel accepted, and when the materials in class represent them. Here is a list of the books we will read as part of our “Families All Matter” program this year:

- The Invisible String
- Grandfather Counts
- A Chair for my Mother
- Best Eid Ever
- Stand Tall, Molly Lou Melon
- Red, a Crayon’s Story
- Each Kindness
- One
- Marisol McDonald Doesn’t Match
