

Dear Families,

October 2, 2023

Here's what's happening this week:

- MATH: Even/Odd Groups/Arrays
- READING: Non-Fiction Mentor Texts
- WRITING: Non-Fiction Expertise
- PHONICS/WORD WORK: Letter Formation
- SOCIAL/EMOTIONAL STUDIES: Cardinal Directions/Cooperation
- SPECIALISTS: PE, S, PA, M, PE

Can you believe it's been a month of second grade already? The students have been doing very well at being ready to learn every day. We welcome your partnership and recognize your role as the most important educators of your children. One big way for you to show support is to come to school and interact with your child. See below for many opportunities to participate. Wednesday is the school picnic and our lunchtime is 10:10-10:40. We hope to see you there, but realize some cannot attend. We ask the families who can come to extend a welcome to those children who do not have a grownup to eat with. It's fun to get to know peers and put faces with the names you've been hearing at home. In Literacy Workshop, we have been building a reading and writing life. This week we'll make certain we use complete sentences as we brainstorm and work on writing about a personal expertise. In math the lessons will focus on even/odd numbers, equal groupings and repeated addition.

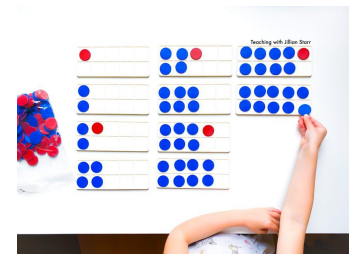

Please send back signed Bus Safety contract, return school iPad chargers, send tennis shoes for Phy.Ed., check Home folders each day, and read 20 minutes each night.

All the best from Team Two!
