ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS 7

For quarter 3, ELA7 will focus on historical fiction book clubs, and will also create companion books where they write about the books they are reading. Specifically, students will study historical fiction literature in depth by analyzing main and minor characters, conflict, perspective, and theme. Students will then examine how the historical lessons revealed in our analysis work can be applied to real life. Furthermore, students will continue to use this analysis work to write about what they have read by creating companion books. These writings will allow students to examine their books through lenses of different story elements to build stronger understanding of what they read.

READING AT HOME

Reading at home for 30 minutes each day is a continued expectation for 7th grade students. There is no shortage of reading material available to students. In addition to physical books, students have access to multiple apps on their iPads with digital books. All reading logs and login information are linked in ELA7 classes in Schoology for students. Please be encouraging students to work toward this 30 minute reading goal each day as it will help to improve comprehension skills and boost testing scores.
