CAUGHT IN THE ACT !!!

During the school year some of our students decided to let their true side out. At the pep-fest the juniors cheer "GO TEAM HUMBOLDT." Zack is in the stands cheering on his favorite team to a victory. Sam is in the cafeteria strutting his stuff "Hey boy's". "My nails are so pretty," said Abe, "Abe, is it a little nippy in here or is it just me?", asks Dave, and Arthur just stands there admiring himself "SHOOT! I LOOK GOOD!" Sally and Na-na take a breather from a hard days practice. As for the dance "I was there, were you?" Gloria, Elicia, and Rosario are three pea's in a pod. Katrina hits on Zack "Hey baby, come here often".

Living in a Moment

-Ty Herndon

"This is how we do it!" Montel Jordan

Humboldt students are very talented. They know how to balance work and play. They work hard, but also take time to relax with their friends. The challenge is to be able to have fun in class. Page 49: Chad, Bryan, Miguel, & Joe are just plain board. Check mate! Page 48: above right: Jamie fights for her cotton candy. Above left: Just hangin' out in the lunch room. Upper left: Anthony is enthusiastic beyond belief. Lower left: Chad gets a make-up lesson in English class. Below far left: Horsing around upside down. Below left: Miguel's lookin' funky doing the Hustle. Below right: Students suffer a lot. Bottom right: Having fun in Physics.

Student Life

HOMECOMING

FULL OF SPIRIT

Humboldt's Homecoming took place the week of September 14th - 19th. Student Council organized Spirit Week. Each day of Spirit Week we celebrated in a different way. Students dressed up to reflect the theme of each day.

On Monday we elected our King and Queen. The Coronation was held in the gymnasium. At the end of the week there was a wild pep fest held to show support for our football team. Our Homecoming game added another victory for Humboldt. What was our secret, great offense and smashing defense who let Como score only one touchdown. Not only was the game a winner but the week was a success too. We all had fun showing off our spirit and pumping up the school for the big game.

Spirit Week

(Top left) It began Monday with Super Hero Day, students dressed up like their favorite Super Hero. (Top right) Tuesday was Hat Day, the only day students are free to sport hats. (Middle left) Wednesday was the most interesting day, it was Opposite Gender Day. Guys dressed as girls and girls dressed as guys. (Middle right) Thursday was 70's Day, People dressed like they did in the seventies. (Bottom) Friday was Spirit Day. Everyone participated on that day.

The band plays nice and loud to fill us with spirit for the upcoming game.

The crowd goes bizerk as Humboldt scores another touchdown making victory even sweeter!

WILD!

HOMECOMING

ROYALTY

On Tuesday September 16th we had the coronation in the Gymnasium. The coronation was put on by Humboldt's student council. Everything looked fabulous. It was carefully planned and executed. All the candidates looked wonderful and they all deserved the crown. Unfortunately everyone cannot win. Our Homecoming King and Queen were Bryan Stoffel and Jamie Duncan.

On Friday September 19th after winning the football game, Humboldt High School student council hosted the Homecoming dance. Students flocked to the beautifully decorated commons area where the dance was being held. The King and Queen reigned over the dance and helped everyone have a little more fun.

-The Lion King

The handsome King Bryan Stoffel stands next to the Beautiful Queen Jamie Duncan while everyone claps and cheers. If you listen closely you can here people yelling, "I voted for you!" Having never been a King or Queen before Jamie and Bryan did a great job reigning over Humboldt for the days of Homecoming Week, September 15th-19th.

WAKING UP

IS HARD TO DO

Your digital, neon, alarm clock hits 6:00 a.m., for most of us the most horrible, sharp and irritating sound interrupts your beauty sleep. You can't believe it's already time to get up. Didn't you just shut your eyes? You can't stand the thought of getting up out of your warm, cozy bed. Then it dawns on you.....ahhhh, the snooze button. Isn't the snooze button our best friend in the morning?

But, the nine minutes that this allows only comes too fast. And pretty soon you've wasted 18 to 27 minutes, that you end up wishing you wouldn't have. Finally, you drag yourself out of bed and throw yourself in a nice hot shower. By that time you should be ready to take on another day at Humboldt.

Breakfast at McDonalds: Melissa, Melody, Katrina, Krista and Angelika start their morning off the right way.

Life In The Dark Zone

Top: Jamie gets ready for school. Directly above: students are ready for school when the sun isn't even out.

CLASS DISMISSED

Seventh hour finally arrives and you end up looking at the clock more times than you can count, which only makes the hour drag on even longer. The afternoon announcements come on, and it seems like it stays 1:59 p.m. forever.

As soon as you get all your homework from your locker, (because each teacher thinks they're the only one), and if you have no after-school obligations, you're outta here! Time to enjoy the rest of your day as you choose.

STUDENT LIFE

ALIVE & KICKIN'

For having one of the least populated schools; Humboldt has a lot of activities. We have three student-faculty games: Volleyball, Basketball, and Softball. The faculty always claim that it will be their 40th year in a row to win, but we know they are trying a strange style of intimidation. We not only play here but we work here (putting a force through a motion). Students study hard to earn grades so they will be accepted to Morris or Duluth-those are the popular spots.

When nationally famous poet, Tracy Morris, came to Humboldt to give us a new outlook, or "Observation," on life we listen attentively. Students also like to show their spooky spirits on Halloween. Some people though, dress up for the fun of it. Student life at Humboldt is full of diversity, creativity, and fun.

The students aren't going to get by Mr. Olson!

Food Factory

"What's the Food Factory?" you ask. Well, it's where students prepare meals for the faculty. They also act as waiters by taking orders and serving them. Besides serving the staff in the Food Factory, they can also do catering. The class is a 2 hour block, taught by Ms. Christopherson.

Ahh... Journalism, the foundation of freedom in the United States. Journalism, the shining light of truth, eradication, the shadows of injustice, villainy, and double dealing. Journalism is the apple in our pie, the Yankee in our Doodle. Without journalism, our nation would just be a bunch of roads, buildings, and people, wandering around, doing stuff, with no "Dear Abby" to turn to nor any "Dilbert" to laugh at.

Shown right, revising the news. Mee asks Mr. McGinnis for advice.

Students participate in many academic programs at Humboldt. Some volunteer with Share & Care, some work on their leadership skills with the JROTC program. Others do gift wrapping with NHS at Barnes & Noble. Some are even involved with the winter musical. Student Council held a talent show to raise toys. They raised over 500 toys and donated them to Toys for Tots.

New to Humboldt is the student newspaper. The supervisor of the Humboldt newspaper is Mr. McGinnis. This is the first year in a long time that we have had a newspaper in this school. The staff is composed of six students who work on the paper during 7th hour. The newspaper features a horoscope section, local news, and school wide news. The newspaper features various people in our community and school. Important current topics are covered like drinking and driving. All the students receive a copy of the paper.

Where People Count

This year we competed against only St. Paul Schools because Minneapolis Schools have a later ending time. This makes the competition extra stiff, because Central and Highland High Schools are two of the top schools in the state, as far as Math Teams are concerned.

"Ils sont la creme de la creme."

They are the cream of the crop. The French students have three fundraising projects each year that are designated to pay for all French cooking projects, French magazine subscriptions, French games and field trips. This year students attended subscriptions, The French game (Madeleine) and The Ordway (le Cirque Ingenieux), as well as having the traditional French luncheon at the Hotel Sofitel. Cooking projects included the traditional Buches de Noel, before winter break and Beignets aux pommes for Mardi Gras along with designing masks. Additionally on Jan. 6 students made Galette Des Rois with crowns being awarded the luckier students after French tradition. The French candy store provided shopping opportunities for students to use authentic French francs.

Summer Yearbook Camp Get that layout done! Amanda, Indira, Jolene and Jostens Representative Andy Hedstrom, work at Gustavus Adolphus College to start producing our 'Stayin' Alive' yearbook. They took 3 days at the end of July to go down to St. Peter MN to get a head start on this great student publication.

Keep up the hard work, Ms. Atkinson and Jenny sure are!

THE Write Stuff

Everybody's buyin' a book.

Everybody's buyin' a book. Yeah, yeah, yeah. Everybody's buyin' a book. Yeah, yeah, yeah. It's not so bad, buyin' yearbooks. It's a cool way to remember your friends. Please don't hate me because I bought one, I'm just following the latest trend. Somewhere inside the yearbook, my face lies. And you will see exactly what you despise. My clothes don't match, my teeth are bucked, if you ask me my picture....

Somewhere inside the yearbook you will see, what a stupid geek I used to be.

400 books	yearbook '98
350 books	Stayin' Alive

Order Now And Save

Mao Lo helps us show where we are at in reaching our yearbook sales goal. The class of 1998 is proving their greatness by ordering 200 books during yearbook's Sale Drive Week.

Friends Are For Secret Garden

Humboldt's Friendship Club Volunteers at the Westside Gateway Art Project Over 30 Humboldt students and staff joined to dig holes and plant trees and shrubs as part of "Journey of the River & the Sun," a massive art project created by local artist, Craig David. Participants shown above on Saturday, October 11, 1997: Jamie Duncan, Anthony Minus, Michael Bougie, Tou Lee Lor, Lisa Croner, Miguel Villegas, Kelly Ellerbusch, Raquel Morales, Chris Haley, Angel Perez, Minnie Yang, Antonio Perez, Thao Ke Vang Soua, Julia Delosier, Crystal Phillips, Sonia Camacho, Merry Yang, Meng My Thao, Cynthia Morales, Nao Yang, Stephaine Heindreich. Teachers get in on the action. Dig a little deeper Ms. Tesch!

Who's that behind the tree? Jolene, Miguel & Steve pose behind their work!

It sure took a lot of people to plant just one tree! Then again there is no "I" in team.

4th & Best Ever

Humboldt's fourth and best year of JROTC brought more fun and excitement to the program. Our annual Camp Ripley trip was as adventurous as usual. Three seekers rappelled off a forty foot tower and went through a hard confidence course. Another great event was a senior trip to Florida, where they toured Kennedy Space Center and relaxed on the beach. This year they had their first ever St. Paul Public Schools Military Ball which was held at the Officer's Club at Fort Snelling. Thanks to Lt.C. Johnson, MSG. Worthey and SFC. Hurd, it was a great year. HOO-HAH!!!

Murder, Mystery, Mayham Murder

Musical Drama Class New To Humboldt This year was the first year a musical drama class was offered 7th hour during first semester. This was a way for the students to learn about the different forms of drama. At the end of first semester the class performed their version of, 'The Butler Did It Singing.' Some of the cast shown above are: Angelika Matthews, Song Hang, Lee Ann Kenney, Shanda Mauricio, Jolene Danner, & Crystal Lopez. Not shown are Eve Tugwell, Jessica Schilling, Richard Holland, and Nicole Hogan. The cast members were not the only ones who worked hard on the play. The crew worked just as hard to get this production going. The Student Director was, Indira Addington, Director's Assistants were, Rachael Gerner & Shanda Mauricio. The crew members were Anthony Minus, Teng Thao, Joy Nicoski, and Brenetta Beck. The set was designed by Gail Merriam and was built by Project Explore. The play was directed by Ms. Jennifer Tesch.

*You are cordially invited to
"The Butler Did It Singing".
Spend the weekend at Ravenswood Manor with your lovely, well-known hostess Miss Maple. Be ready for murder, mystery, and mayhem. The party runs from January 15-17, 1998 at 7:00 pm.*

My Business Cherchez La Femme

"Murder is my business Miss Maple." Above: Jolene Banner assures her hostess that she can take care of things. Below: Time to sing and dance. Lee Ann & Shanda dance for Richard & Song.

POISON DART! Everyone is ecstatic after that announcement & they line up to take a look at the pin hole in the chair.

Look! They brought along their little dog. Don't look now but that little dog is stuffed. Rita greets Laura and Rick Carlyle while Chandler listens.

Who asked you, Droopy Dress? Rita and Haversham exchange insults while Miss Maple goes over the guest list.

CONGRATULATIONS GRADS

Honoring seniors for their various accomplishments for a successful year at Humboldt High School.

Top 10 Seniors

1^o Elena Rosas

After Graduation, I plan to attend the College of St. Benedict in St. Joseph, MN and to enroll in their Pre-medicine program. After medical school, I plan to pursue a career in medicine, possibly as a pediatrician, but only time will tell.

6^o Mao Ker

Future plans...I have to think about that one. j/k. Hopefully I will graduate in 4 years and become one of the people that we hate the most, a teacher! In ten years... hopefully I won't have a head of white hair by then. See you all and enjoy high school while you're still in it!

2^o Chris Kaley

Next year I will attend the University of Minnesota Duluth. Then I will go on to medical school at the U of M. Ten years from now I want to go to our class reunion and see how everyone has changed. Motto: "Attitude is Everything."

7^o Jolene Danner

I plan to attend the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities. I am going to major in Veterinary Medicine, and if time allows minor in filmography. Remember, you never know when you're going to die, eat dessert first.

3^o Annette Nelson

After graduation I plan on attending the University of Wisconsin - Riverfalls and playing volleyball. In ten years I would like to be teaching in math education and coaching volleyball.

8^o Bao Ngu Lee

I will be attending the University of Minnesota Teachers of Color program in the fall. In ten years I hope to be an elementary teacher within the Saint Paul School District.

4^o Thao Ké Vang Soua

I am planning to attend the University of Minnesota to get my teaching degree in French. After a couple of years of teaching, I'd like to do something in international business.

9^o Chad Johnson

Next fall I plan to attend the University of St. Thomas. Ten years from now I'll be 27. "If you ever fall off the Sears Tower, just go real limp. Then maybe you'll look like a dummy and people will try and catch you, because hey, free dummy." - J.H.

5^o Tou Lee Lor

I plan to go to the University of Minnesota Duluth and get a degree in computer science. In ten years I plan to work at a computer games development company.

10^o Je Moua

I will be attending the University of Minnesota in pursuit of a degree in Design Communications and an Army Officer commission with ROTC. In ten years, I hope to be a Graphic Artist and an Army Officer. Motto: All I need to know I learned from the Class of '98.

El Niño

Daze

El Niño Daze started out with a big bang on Monday, March 9th, with the coronation 3rd period. Classes crowded into the gym to see the candidates. First Yasmin Garcia and Jolene Danner presented the crowns to the teacher King and Queen, sponsored by NHS. The winners were Mr. Hilker and Mrs. Bellows. Other teacher nominees were Mr. Brott, Mr. Olson, Ms. McQuillan, and Ms. Christopherson. Then Yasmin and Jenny Napier announced the candidates for the 1998 El Niño Royalty. Amanda Tugwell and Sokha Phan, last years King and Queen, presented the students with their medals and tiaras.

The Lord and Lady runners up were: Kong Her, Tony Duran, Jerome Price, Kou Yang, Vickie Lee, Kim Fooks, Kendra Stampley, and Melissa Vasquez. Steven Horst and Cynthia Macias took the title graciously. The Duke and Duchess runners up were: Frank Huerta, Ricky Yang, Kong Yang, Luke Hernandez, Julie Yang, Jenny Thao, Sonia Huerta, and Melissa Loun. The crowned couple were Victor Reyes and Sally Baker. The Prince and Princess runners up were Samneng You, Mario Morales, Andy Dittrich, Nick Molina, Tiffany Love, Honey Mercado, Mai Lee, and Eve Tugwell. The crowned couple were Bob Green and Morgan Fierst. The runners up for King and Queen were Chris Haley, Matt Hamiel, Ray Tolefree, Richard Holland, Brooklyn Mayne, Jessica Westernen, and Desiree Chavez. Miguel Villegas and Kao Lee reigned over El Niño Daze.

The rest of the week was also a huge success. Everyone was filled with spirit. The week ended with a decade dance. No one was allowed in unless they were dressed like someone from the 50's, 60's, 70's, or 80's. The music was also theme related, there wasn't any music from the 90's. El Niño Daze went out the same way it started, with a bang!

Spirit Week El Niño Style

In order L-R and Top to Bottom. Monday was dress up day to correlate with the coronation. Tuesday was beach/hat dat, students really got into the summertime spirit. Toga day took place on Wednesday, Bow down to Julius Ceasar and his royal court. What a bunch of geeks, Thursday was nerd day. The week came to an end with the Decade dance, students dressed like people from the 50's - 80's. I wonder who those groovy fellas are, they sure look fabu.

Military Ball

This year was the first St. Paul Public Schools Military Ball. The Ball was held at the Fort Snelling Officers Club. It took place on Friday, March 27th from 6 to 11p.m. It was a very classy dinner and dance. Everyone had a blast groovin' the night away; even Colonel Johnson was caught dancing!

Left Top-Bottom: Three schools (Como, Johnson, and Humboldt) work together to present the "Colors" to the group. The Arch of Honor: The Military honors the Seniors with an Arch of Sabers. The St. Paul Public Schools prepared a cake to celebrate the occasion. Above: Finishing their dinner, cadets and guests excitedly move on to the cake.

"Celebrate Come On!!" Good Times

The 1998 commencement began with the band playing Pomp and Circumstance. The Masters of Ceremonies were Kao Lee and Anthony Minus. The presentation of colors was done by the JROTC, the Pledge of Allegiance, by Steve Quayle, and the National Anthem by the Concert Band. Then we were welcomed in 4 different languages English, Sign Language, Hmong, and Spanish. This was done by Kelly Ellerbusch, Jamie Duncan, Thao Ké Vang Soua, and Olvin Mejia. The class motto was then read by Amanda Peterson. The seniors and their audience were then greeted by Maureen Flanagan, a representative from the Administration. School Board member Becky Montgomery gave a greeting to the class, and then Jolene Danner presented the Hall of Fame award.

"Count on Me", performed by the Show Choir, was next with solos by Indira Addington and Angelika Matthews. Then the Commencement Address was give by Annette Nelson. Ms. Diane Hopen presented Thao Ké Vang Soua with the Unsung Hero award. The band then played "Blue Ridge Saga". Then Mr. Steve Lindberg presented the Class of 1998, and Gilbert de la O conferred the diplomas. Amanda Hageman and Kao Lee read the class roll, Mr. Steve Aeilts and Mr. Jason Schlukebier gave the closing remarks. Good-bye class of 1998!

Strutin' his stuff Anthony makes his way down the aisle.

Class Motto: "Facing Graduation"

Faces of old and faces of new, People we know and people we knew. Growing together then drifting apart, Always an ending and now a new start. At graduation we all grow nearer, And all of our friends seem so much dearer. And as we say our final good-bye, One last embrace and one more cry, A "keep in touch" and a "promise I will." A "remember when" but, better still, A place in my heart, you'll always stay, This is what's said as we go our own way.

Humboldt High School's Hall Of Fame

Dr. Mary Turner Maher, Class of 1946, earns recognition in this years Hall of Fame award. She went back for higher education at the age of 42 while still raising 5 children and working part-time. In 1986 she recieved her Ph. D in Educational Administration from the University of Minnesota. Turner Maher's community involvement is extensive, from School Board Member and Chairman to Human Rights Advisory Board Member. Her portrait is hung in the library along with previous award winners.

Any way you dice it, pizza looks good to me.

Culinary Arts students win National "Boboli" Award

The Advanced Culinary Arts classes at Humboldt were one of the winners in the national "Art of Boboli School Contest." The students entered three different variations of pizza: traditional Italian, cold fruit, and cold vegetable. Their efforts were rewarded with a $1,000 donation for the Family & Consumer Science Department, a $500 donation for a Boboli pizza party, and an Art of Boboli t-shirt for all 35 students. Shown above are some of the winning students in their Boboli t-shirts.
