Looking Back...

Humboldt Senior High 2003

When we look back,
these are the times we'll see.

We'll remember all that we were,
all that we hoped to be.

Humboldt is more than a memory,
it is a mirror that reflects our lives.

Humboldt is a place where foundations are built and where dreams become goals.

Homecoming 2002 was full of fun and excitement! Jenny Harrington and Crystal Royce, the mistresses of the ceremony, presented each candidate to the student body. Everyone cheered as the individual couples graced the gym with their presence. The anticipation was high when it came time for crowning the King & Queen. Kong Vue and Genny Yang won Homecoming King and Queen. They expressed their gratitude with bright brilliant smiles. The crowd was superb and it was a fun time for all.

On October 11, 2002 Humboldt played its homecoming game against the Harding knights. The school was hyped up with homecoming events, such as the Pep Fest and the Spirit Days.

During halftime, Humboldt officially dedicated its field and athletic complex in name of Bob Ryan. During the 70s and 80s, Ryan coached football, wrestling and track and field. He showed outstanding coaching skills and received wrestling coach of the year in 1987.

The game began and the crowd went wild. Afterwards, the student council did a great job setting up for the Homecoming dance. It was a night filled with fun.

This painting of my grandmother symbolizes herself as a woman who concentrates on her sewing for it will help her family. I painted this because my grandmother is a strong significant person in my life. I felt that by catching her in the process of working it would show what kind of person she is. Not only does it symbolize my grandmother but my mom. If you notice that in the painting Grandmother concentrates on her work and my mothers work, they both represent how one is in the process and the other done.

travel to Thailand & Laos

Students Sheng Ly, Cindy Xiong, Shau Ly, Mai Xiong, Soua Yang, Gunnar Liden, Kate Liden, & Jeff Bauer spent 17 days in Thailand & Laos.

Homeland Project Mission Statement... The Homeland Project is a cultural education and community organizing initiative, created by and for Hmong Youth, to both reclaim their own cultural identities, and to help non-Hmong Minnesotans better understand the culture and history of the Hmong people. It is a direct response to the daily, lived reality of Hmong teenagers a reality filled with the tension between honoring and preserving one's culture, while trying to grow and thrive in another. It is also a grass roots effort to strengthen our democracy in Minnesota through cultural exchange and understanding, especially during this critical time when our collective commitment to the democratic ideas of diversity and freedom must be renewed.

Student Council members worked really hard to design and organize this year's Sno-Daze Coronation. They sacrificed an early Saturday morning and rather than sleeping in they spent the day setting up and decorating the gym for the festivities. The end result was great and all their work paid off.

The experience was fun. Great job student council!

This year's Lord & Lady is Blair Henderson and Natalie Hamilton,
Duke and Dutchess is Tyler Chavez and Santana Rivera,
Prince and Princess is Demone Colvin and Jessica Markfort.

After the coronation, Mr. Kranz and student council took the candidates out to eat. After having so much fun and having a full tummy everyone was happy! Congratulations!

They live their lives to enrich those who seek guidance and wisdom.

They teach to give back and
in return, they receive the satisfaction of knowing they have helped someone.

To my sweet, Syndal

From Now On

I've never been kissed so passionately
Shed so closely
Touched so softly
Or felt this way before.

I'll see you again
In the near future
And hold you close
Once again, forever.

We met today,
And I've fallen in love
Can never turn away,
Your sweet, innocent face.

But at that time,
I'll never let go
And you'll be mine,
From then on.

Adam Carlsson

Learn from the Mistakes of Others

Anger is only one letter short of danger
If someone betrays you once, it is his fault
If someone betrays you twice, it is your fault
Great minds discuss ideas
Average minds discuss events
Small minds discuss people
We started our group, our circle of friends, and like a circle, there is no beginning or end.
In the End, we will remember not the words of our enemies, but the silence of our friends.

Best Friend

By: Sara Gould

You told me I was good enough
That I deserved a chance
That I should have the courage
To sing, to laugh, to dance
You told me not to care
What other people thought
Cause you are my best friend
A gift that can't be bought
And now I want to give you
What you always gave to me
Love, friendship, caring
And most important, dignity
But how can I do this
In ways that equal yours
Cause what I want to give you
Can't be bought in stores
What I want to give you
Is only a simple phrase
It may not seem like very much
But it is in many ways
What I want to give you
Will never say my due
What I want to give you
Is a simple, kind Thank You

Love Always,
Cynthia Mirales

Many people will walk in and out of your life, but only true friends will leave footprints in your heart

Un Mundo de Paz

Imaginese un mundo hermoso, un mundo de paz
donde no hay odio ni guerra, Solo amor y amistad.

Imaginese un mundo donde la gente no se le juzga por el color de su piel por sus creencias donde la gente puede vivir en armonia.

Imaginese un mundo donde la gente no tiene que vivir en miedo donde existe la violencia.

Imaginese un mundo justo donde tratan a toda la gente con dignidad e igualdad.

Si todos abrimos nuestros corazones y soltamos nuestro pasado, Podemos hacer este mundo una realidad.

Abra Sus Corazones hoy. -Brigid Brennan-

Congratulations Martrel ~ love, mom

My love for you guys goes like this..
 Strolling down the beach, with the sand between our toes, we held hands. We've watched as the waves splashed upon our feet, and like our ups & downs, they washed away our footprints. But the waves could never wash away our memories and the time we had with each other. We will continue to hold hands and stroll the rest of the beach together. ~Mari~

Follow Your Dreams...

Don't Give Up...

In Loving Memory of Jimmy O'Brien

In Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free;
I'm following the path, God laid for me;
I took His hand when I heard His call.

I turned my back, and left it all.

I could not stay another day;

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way;

I've found that peace at close of day.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow;

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much; Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Life up your heart and share with me;

God wanted me now, He set me free.

He was a wonderful friend, his smile was contagious. It's incredible that even though he was here for a short time, he impacted so many lives. He will be truly missed.
